

Week beginning
Monday 16th January 2023

For our writing this week we will be learning to write a poem in Scots
following a given structure.

In numeracy this week we will be...

Revisiting the mental strategies covered for addition and subtraction.

To read and record time in both 12 and 24
hour notation

To read timetables using 12 and 24 hour time
in a real life context.

WINDOW ON THE WEEK

For reading this week we will be introducing new group reading
books and using our prior knowledge to draw comparisons and make assumptions about the book based on what we can tell
from the front cover and the blurb!

In French this week we will be learning...

The names of different animals and how to build simple sentences in French.
