

Week beginning Monday 23rd January 2023

Window on the week

Burns Poetry Competition Judging – Thursday 26th January

In writing this week we will be continuing to look at Scot's poetry.

In reading and spelling this week we will use dictionaries to check the meaning of words.

We will continue to listen to our poems in class and peer assess using our agreed class success criteria.

In numeracy this week we will be learning to...

- Read analogue and digital time (12 and 24 hour)
- Plan journeys using timetables.

We are beginning our new topic all about Scottish Politics!

In French we are continuing to look at animals and will learn some key vocabulary relating to the life of Robert Burns.
